Student-Centered Campus

Dutchess Community College is part of the State University of New York (SUNY) system, and recognized for excellence. The overwhelming majority of students in a recent SUNY survey said that Dutchess Community College exceeded their expectations, and the College is highly regarded for offering quality and value.

Collaborative classrooms, interactive events, fun activities, sports and a sprawling, 130-acre campus in Poughkeepsie create a welcoming environment rich with academic, social and cultural opportunities that will inspire you. If you live or work in Southern Dutchess, you may also want to take classes at a new, state-of-the-art DCC site opening soon in Fishkill.

Remarkable support and tremendous opportunities

You'll know your professors because classes are small, interaction is high and our faculty take pride in creating an enriching teaching and learning environment. Participate in research, present a paper, compete at a state or national level. Become a citizen of the world by travelling abroad with classmates to study with DCC professors.

Hands-on Learning

You also can bring your classroom learning to life – while gaining valuable experience – through service learning, which allows you to share your knowledge and talents by working with local not-for-profits that enhance the quality of life for many in our community.

Help When You Need It

To help you succeed both in and out of the classroom, there's a network of free support services – including academic advising, free tutoring in all subject areas, writing assistance, study skills workshops, and transfer, career and personal counseling – designed to foster your academic and personal growth.

A Library to Love

You'll find all of the academic resources you'll need for any class or assignment at one of the most popular spots on campus – the Francis U. and Mary F. Ritz Library. The contemporary, open and inviting space is staffed by helpful librarians who will help you find the print and digital materials you need. Comfortable seating and glass-enclosed areas make it easy to study or complete group projects.

Living and Learning

If you don't want to commute, make DCC your home. The spacious suites and common areas in Conklin Hall will give you the chance to make lifelong friends with people from other counties, states and even countries – and also provide plenty of spaces where you can put your earbuds in and curl up by yourself to read that next textbook chapter or finish an assignment.

Features of Conklin Hall include:

- Suites with spacious bedrooms, kitchenettes, living rooms and two bathrooms
- Study areas, lounges and a fitness center
- State-of-the-art security
- Just steps from classes
- Competitive pricing; cost is about $13,000/yr. for room and meal plan
