Degrees at Strayer

Your degree.
Your time. Your way.

You can finish your degree on campus or online with Strayer University. Our convenient locations and flexible class scheduling allow you to choose where and when you learn. Take an evening class during the week and another class on weekends. Combine on-campus classes with online courses.

We continually make technology investments to improve the online learning. You can apply for admission, attend class, complete coursework and earn your degree without ever stepping onto a campus.

The credits you've earned, counts.

Whether you've taken just a few classes elsewhere or want to pursue your next degree, we may be able to help you save time and money by getting credits for the work you've done.

As a university founded on real-world knowledge, we appreciate the value of real-world experience. We accept transfer credit from industrial and managerial training programs, adult education, military and work experience, as well as private study. Every eligible credit you earn can get you closer to your goal.
